2011 Robert D. Dixon Founders Award

The R. D. Dixon Founders' Award recognizes a community banker for that person's dedication and devotion to the community banking community in Iowa.

It is now time to consider nominations for this year's award. The selection will be made by a committee comprised of two president's council members, two existing CBI directors and the executive committee.
Please take a moment now to consider who you would like to nominate for this year's award. Factors include: dedication to community banking and community, involvement in Community Bankers of Iowa and ICBA and the industry in general. This is a great opportunity to give well deserved recognition to a great Iowa community banker.

Presentation of the award will take place at the convention. Nominations should be sent on the attached form with supporting material to the Community Bankers office listed below by June 20, 2011.

Previous winners are

2003 - John Dean, John Spies, Robert D. Dixon and Dick Randall
2004 - O.J. Tomson
2005 - Oliver Hansen
2006 - Arnold C. Schulz
2007 - Steven Tscherter
2008 - Harold Harms
