

Timothy Zimmerman

Chairman-Elect

Timothy K. Zimmerman is chairman-elect of the Independent Community Bankers of America® (ICBA), the only national trade association that exclusively represents community banks.

President and CEO of Standard Bank in Monroeville, Pa., Zimmerman has been a community banker for more than 35 years and is a member of ICBA's Executive Committee and board of directors. During his affiliation with ICBA, he has served in many leadership roles, including chairman of ICBA Securities.

Zimmerman is chairman of the Federal Delegate Board and a member of ICBA's Nominating and Policy Development committees and the Subcommittee on Consumer Financial Services. Zimmerman also serves as the sole community bank representative on the Financial Accounting Standards Board's Transition Resource Group, an advisory council on the Current Expected Credit Loss accounting model.

From September 2012 to September 2015 Zimmerman served as a member of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's Community Bank Advisory Council. While on the council he served as vice chairman and chairman. He is also a member of the National Association of Home Builders Mortgage Roundtable. Previously Zimmerman served as chairman of the Mutual Bank Council.

On the local level, Zimmerman has been a member of the Pennsylvania Association of Community Bankers for more than 20 years and currently serves on the board of directors. He is board member and vice president of the Pittsburgh Civic Light Opera and chairman of its Audit and Budget and Finance committees. He also serves as coordinator for the Make-A-Wish Foundation annual campaign.

Zimmerman holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania and did graduate work at the University of Pittsburgh. He is a Certified Public Accountant in Pennsylvania and member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

He lives in Franklin Park, Pa., with his wife, Linda.
