

Community Bankers of Iowa's Leaders of Tomorrow Up & Coming Community Banker of the Year Award

The Leaders of Tomorrow (LOT) is a program created by the Community Bankers of Iowa (CBI) to enhance the growth, leadership, and networking skills of future banking leaders. LOT establishes a network of leaders who serve and strengthen their communities and advocate for the community banking industry.

Annually LOT recognizes one community banker, whose performance and achievements in banking have earned the respect of his or her peers, as the Up & Coming Community Banker of the Year.

Requirements:

- Nominated individuals should exemplify the best in the future of independent, community banking and be an integral part of their institution's leadership plan.
- Nominated bankers must work at a bank that is a member of the Community Bankers of Iowa.
- Applications may be submitted by any banker but must be endorsed by a member of Senior Management.
- Nominated individuals should be a member of the Leaders of Tomorrow (LOT) program, but it is not a requirement.
- Complete and return the nomination application by June 30, 2021.

Evaluation:

Nominations will be evaluated on their individual achievements in banking, bank performance, and community involvement.

Award:

The Up & Coming Community Banker of the Year Award is an honor that is presented during a ceremony at the Community Bankers of Iowa's 50th Management Conference and Annual Convention, to be held July 21-23, 2021 in Okoboji. The award recipient is also featured in upcoming editions of the Community Banker Update and CommonCENTS newsletters.
