DYERSVILLE BANKER RANDY LUDWIG NAMED 2015-2016 CBI BOARD PRESIDENT

WEST DES MOINES, IOWA – Randy Ludwig, market president for Fidelity Bank & Trust, Dyersville, Iowa, became president of Community Bankers of Iowa at their annual convention held July 15-17, 2015 at Arrowwood Resort in Okoboji, Iowa. During his introductory remarks as incoming president, he gave attendees some biographical background:

“I was born and raised on a family farm located just outside the big city of Dyersville, Iowa. After one year of working in other areas of the finance industry, I was hired by Fidelity Bank & Trust. After serving in many different capacities over the last 23 years, I am currently market president of the Dyersville, Worthington, Epworth, Peosta and Luxemburg markets. I have many passions in life, but there are three I would like to point out ... my family, coaching and community banking.”

Ludwig obtained a degree in Finance from the University of Northern Iowa. He and Lisa, his wife of 23 years, have two sons and live in Dyersville.

About CBI

*The Community Bankers of Iowa exclusively promotes and defends the common interests of independently owned and locally controlled Iowa community banks whose services are vital to the preservation of economic diversity and rural America. More than 330 independent community banks are located in Iowa, representing more than 1,000 communities across the state and employing over 5,000 Iowans. CBI members have in excess of $3.2 billion dollars in common sense loans to consumers, small businesses, and the agricultural community.
