LOCAL BANKER SELECTED AS “UP AND COMING BANKER OF THE YEAR”

Jenn Trenary Acknowledged by her Peers as a Leader in the Industry

[WEST DES MOINES], IA – Independent community bankers from across Iowa were recognized during the Community Bankers of Iowa’s (CBI) awards ceremony, held during CBI’s 44th Management Conference and Annual Convention, July 15-17 in Okoboji, Iowa. Annually, one community banker is recognized by their peers for their performance and achievements in banking as the Up and Coming Community Banker of the Year. Jenn Trenary from Rolfe State Bank in Rolfe, Iowa was announced as the 2015 recipient.

Trenary is Cashier of the bank, Compliance Officer, BSA Officer, Assistant Trust Officer, Commercial Loan Officer, and fills many other roles. As well as in her exemplary performance at the bank, Trenary was chosen due to her integral involvement in activities and promotion of the town of Rolfe, Iowa and surrounding areas. Bill Winkleblack, President of Rolfe State Bank said about Jenn:

“In her many capacities serving the bank, along with her daily operational responsibilities, [Jenn] is a member of nearly every budget, audit, IT and seemingly endless list of committees charged with managing affairs of the bank. All this is done while meeting all the ethical and regulatory standards that we are bound by as we attend to the needs of our clientele. She projects all the same personal attributes outside the bank through her involvement in an exhausting list of community services.”

Outside of work, Trenary continues to make time for her community, currently serving as the chairman of the local chamber and community betterment organization, and is integrally involved in activities and promotion of Rolfe and the surrounding area. She is also a member of the local ambulance crew, rodeo organization, and is bookkeeper for the golf course.

The Up and Coming Community Banker of the Year Award is presented by the Leaders of Tomorrow (LOT). LOT is a program created by CBI to enhance the growth, leadership, and networking skills of future banking leaders. LOT establishes a network of leaders who serve and strengthen their communities and advocate for the community banking industry.
